

INTERNAL / EXTERNAL CALL

The Institute

The Hospital de la Santa Creu i Sant Pau Research Institute Foundation (IR Sant Pau) is a scientific foundation whose mission is to improve the health and quality of life of the population through the production and dissemination of scientific knowledge, the training of researchers at an international level, and the promotion of innovation and health through the incorporation of medical advances into clinical practice and health policies. Created in 1992, it has been an excellence research center affiliated with the Autonomous University of Barcelona (UAB) since 2009 and, since 2011, a CERCA center (Catalonia Research Centers).

For the Foundation, it is a priority to ensure that the most suitable candidate is hired to fill a job through an open, transparent and merit-based selection process (OTM-R). Following these guidelines, staff mobility, knowledge exchange and, ultimately, the increase in the quality of teaching and research will be enhanced. Faithful to our commitment to the European Union's human resources strategy, our institution's personnel selection and recruitment procedures are governed by a set of basic principles that guarantee equal access to employability for all. Therefore, the constitutional principles of equality, merit and ability are followed, respecting in all cases the national and international regulations in force in this area, specifically the European Charter for Researchers and the Code of Conduct for the Recruitment of Researchers (C&C). The principles of C&C are applicable to the recruitment of any personnel of the institution, regardless of their professional category. For this reason, our Foundation has obtained the recognition of "Excellence in R+D in Research" granted to the IIB Sant Pau, since 2015.

The Santa Creu i Sant Pau Hospital Research Institute Foundation needs to incorporate at the Neurobiology of Dementias Group and the Nuclear Medicine Group:

A2A Junior Administrative Officer

About the Unit / Group:

The Neurobiology of Dementias and Nuclear Medicine groups form a multidisciplinary research environment dedicated to the study of neurodegenerative diseases and oncology.

The Neurobiology of Dementias Group is made up of more than 60 researchers — neurologists, neuropsychologists, biologists, biochemists, engineers, and laboratory technicians— working translationally by combining basic and clinical research in humans. The main goal is to advance the understanding of Alzheimer’s disease, dementia with Lewy bodies, and frontotemporal dementia. The group stands out for its high scientific productivity, competitive funding acquisition, and training of residents, master’s students, and pre- and postdoctoral researchers, offering an excellent environment for young scientists.

The Nuclear Medicine Group focuses on two major research lines: functional neuroimaging and oncology research. In neuroimaging, it develops and implements new PET radiopharmaceuticals for the in vivo study of neurodegenerative diseases such as Alzheimer’s, dementia with Lewy bodies, frontotemporal dementia, and parkinsonisms. In oncology, it focuses on identifying molecular targets for the development of new diagnostic and treatment strategies

Together, these two groups constitute a leading biomedical research platform that integrates basic knowledge, clinical applications, and technological innovation.
